

Giuseppe Milici

Harmonica player and composer Giuseppe Milici has played as a soloist on some very popular Italian television programs, including Serata d'onore, Fantastico, Uno su cento, Il Numero Uno, Festival di Sanremo, Novecento, I Fatti Vostri, Un Natale Italiano, and Taratatta. In 1990 he became a member of the first European Jazz Orchestra. He played on the original movie soundtrack of The Magician, starring Antony Quinn, and Vaniglia e Cioccolata, starring Maria Grazia Cucinotta. He has also played on the soundtracks for the television series Avvocato Porta, starring Gigi Proietti, and Tutti i sogni del mondo, starring Serena Autieri. He composed the soundtrack for La terramadre, screened at the 2008 Berlin Film Festival and the film "Il Coraggio" recently produced and screened in Spain.

He has toured in the U.S.A. (the Blue Note in New York), Greece, Holland, Switzerland, Morocco, Australia, England, France, Argentina, Germany, South Africa, Swaziland, Poland, Japan (the Blue Note in Tokyo), Corea and Mozambique and in 2009 Milici has also played as soloist of the Sofia Symphony Orchestra at Teatro La Fenice in Venice. He has recorded several CDs such as Michael Jackson Jazz Tribute, Beatles Jazz Tribute (presented at the Paris Fashion Week) and the Burt Bacharach Jazz Tribute (with Eliot Zigmund, Bill Moring and Mauro Schiavone). Along those years he has collaborated with such artists as Peter Cincotti, Francesca Alotta, Aleandro Baldi, Fabio Concato, Gianni Morandi, Toots Thielemans, Giancarlo Giannini, Gino Paoli, Gigi D'Alessio, Lina Sastri, Antonella Ruggiero, Amii Stewart, David Riondino, Simona Molinari, Dirotta su Cuba, Tullio De Piscopo, Fabrizio Bosso, Philip Catherine, Franco Cerri, Irio De Paola, Laura Fygi, James Newton, I Ragazzi Italiani, Gigi Cifarelli, Dario Deidda, Sasà Salvaggio, Gegè Telesforo, Pietra Montecorvino, Alessandro Haber, Riccardo Pazzaglia, Beatrice Luzzi, Edoardo Siravo, Beppe Vessicchio, Zoltan Pesco, Massimo Ghini, Vince Tempera, Neja, Raphael Gualazzi, Ernesto Vitolo, Gianfranco D'Angelo, Cochi Ponzoni, Mat Bianco, Mario Rosini, Papik and Sabina Guzzanti. From 2015 his music becomes part of the music selection of KLM flights.

A cd tribute to Maestro Ennio Morricone will soon be released